JUNE 2018

GATHERING JUNE 24 !

July picnic 21st, KACHELMACHER PARK Logan, Ohio
August 26, Sept. 30, Oct., 28, Nov. 18, Dec 2. Christmas Party

Greetings,

School is out and it will soon be summer officially. Our God has made a truly awesome world for us to live in, love, and share with each other. There is beauty in every season of the year, just as there is beauty in every season of our lives. The death of two young people in our community has really brought us together in prayer and love for each other. God blesses us with our children, and grandchildren to love, and teach them about God and His everlasting love for all people. Take time to appreciate all of the blessings that He has given us.

The Emmaus community is moving forward with the Chrysalis re-organization as we met May 22 to continue cleaning and organizing the church that we will hold the flights in. Please pray for this program as we are doing God's work with our youth. Now is the time to pray about sponsoring a pilgrim for the fall walks. We have plenty of opportunities for everyone to serve in some capacity. Remember we are His servants being His hands and feet.

Hope to see all of you at the gathering on June 24th at The Plains United Methodist Church.

DeColores,
Jo Young, Board Chair

Dear friends of Southern Ohio Emmaus,

As I have shared with you in previous articles, my perspective on the Lord's Prayer has deepened since reading "The Divine Conspiracy" by Dallas Willard. The phrase "thy kingdom come" has come to mean a great deal to me. We are to ask for the kingdom to come on four levels. The first two I mentioned earlier. 1.) Pray that God's kingdom will come fulfilled in me-now. That I will make a difference as a co laborer with God . 2) that god's kingdom will come to others. Today, the third level. That we pray against evil in society, deeply embedded evil. This would include racism, but, any kind of thinking globally that would lift other kingdoms over God's. We are to pray against principalities and powers in high places.

My we be the kingdom people! Next time I will write on the fourth level.
