January 2014

God Is Love

by Greg Rush, Community Lay Director

First, let me say Thank You to those board members who have faithfully served and helped lead our Southern Ohio Emmaus Community. Thanks to those members who are leaving the board: Georganne Thomas, Joyce Drake, Larry Moneypenny, Tom Parrish, Sharla Snedden, and Andy Ellinger. Now help me to welcome the new board members: Debbie Brookins, Jeff Cupp, Alice Moneypenny, Heather Pullins, Rita Rinehart, Steve Rinehart and Lena Bruno (who served a partial year last year).

It is nearly the end of January and maybe the worst of winter weather is behind us. What's next, February and Valentine Day? We often think of love when we think of Valentine Day, but is it the kind of love God has taught us? God tells us in Romans to "Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good. Love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honoring each other. (Romans 12:9-10 NLT)" Love is the most powerful force in the universe because God is love. God loves us even when we don't deserve to be loved. He wants us to really love others with genuine affection. He even tells us to love our enemies. What does it mean to take delight in honoring each other? It means we should celebrate when someone in our small group or someone we know succeeds. What people in your life need your love and support? How can you celebrate with them when they succeed? How can you love and support them when they might be struggling? Show people they are loved and trust that God will bless you.

Have you been praying for the upcoming Walks? Teams are beginning to meet and they need our prayers. God is preparing new pilgrims to experience what you experienced on your walk, and they need our prayers. Is there someone you know who might be ready to experience Agape Love? Remember, pilgrims need someone to sponsor them and you might be that person. Sponsorship is a very important responsibility, so if you think you need help sponsoring, find someone to be a co-sponsor with you. Most importantly, do everything with real love and you will be blessed.

DeColores,
Greg Rush, Board Chairperson

Reminder of Fee Increase for Pilgrims

by Alice Monerpenny, Community Treasurer

The Southern Ohio Emmaus Board would like to thank all those faithful community members for their support. Thanks to your giving we have been able to avoid raising our pilgrim fee for five years. In 2012, your financial gifts (including collections at gatherings, candlelight and other special gifts) totaled over $5000 and we would not have met our expenses without these gifts. Last year, 126 new pilgrims experienced the Walk to Emmaus and this could not have happened without your support.

Costs per Pilgrim
Purple Worship Book	$1.50
Cross	$4.00
Picture	$6.50
Meals per person	$58.75
Lodging per person	$77.25
Lodging Tax	$4.64
Upper Room fee	$13.00
	$165.64

The SOE board members have discussed ways to keep from raising fees, but reluctantly we have decided to raise the pilgrim fee from $125 to $150 which began with the 2013 fall walks. The board wants you to understand what items contribute to the cost of an Emmaus Walk. As you can see, the new pilgrim fee ($150) still doesn't cover the full cost of sponsoring a pilgrim ($166). In fact, in addition to the costs for each pilgrim we also have supplies which need purchased for the walks and throughout the year. So when you see us taking up a collection, please consider helping so we can avoid further increases.

Procrastinate, Procrastinate, Procrastinate....oh my!

By Barb Harkless, SO Emmaus Newsletter

I don't know how many of you feel about putting things off, but in the past I have always been very bad about it. Though I have been learning that it is less stressful when I do not put things off, I still have a tendency to wait til the last minute. Sometimes I do my best work when I wait til the last minute, but it is still something I want to get better at. I have always admired my sister, we all know who she is, (and in case you don't know, Lena Bruno is her name). I have always looked up to her, literally all my life! She is the most organized and efficient person I know. Everything is in order, right down to the vegetables in her pantry. Yes my friends, I can learn a lot from her, and believe me I try. I have the most respect for her and appreciate all she does for me.

Well, I got just a tad off track here, which is probably why I end up procrastinating, and you're probably wondering what this has to do with procrastinating! But I needed to share this because she is a good example and one person I know that doesn't procrastinate.

How many of you out there are willing to admit that you procrastinate and really want to do better? One thing that comes to my mind is how we all probably do procrastinate at one time or another with our walk with Christ. Now you are probably thinking 'you've got some nerve' to say "I" procrastinate!?! Well, sadly we just had 2 Chrysalis Flights cancelled due to not enough applications/butterflies. So many times we have the opportunity to share our faith and what Jesus has done in our lives, but we sometimes, and not always, shy from it and miss the opportunity. We may think "I'll share with them 'next' time I see them; or, we may think 'this is not a good time or place'. Perhaps someone has come up to you and shared something very personal with you and then asked you to keep them in prayer. Did you take the time right there and then to ask 'can I pray for you right now?' As I have heard Pastor Ricci say many times that we have such an awesome tool called Emmaus and how this journey has changed so many of our lives; why oh why would we not want to see so many take this journey as well!? Our children are our future church and we should be out there, me included, with the invitation for others to take this journey too. This is a time that none of us want to 'procrastinate'. I'm sure we all know at least one teen that would love to experience a closer walk with our Lord. Let us be in prayer for this year of 2014 and make our next Girl's and Boy's Chrysalis Flights full to the brim!!! Wouldn't that be awesome?

Blessings,
Barb
